Protestant Women of the Chapel Fall Kickoff

Your Kingdom Come

Protestant Women of the Chapel • Matthew 6:9-13 (NKJV)

Matthew 6: 9-13 (NKJV)

In this manner, therefore, pray:

Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be
Your name.

Your kingdom come. Your will be done On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors.

And do not lead us into temptation, But deliver us from the evil one.

For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory.

Dear Sisters-in-Christ,

We are so delighted to start the 2011-2012 PWOC season! We are excited about our upcoming year and the privilege of serving this PWOC body! We are extremely grateful to the Lord for the wonderful leadership that has gone before us, those that have plowed the ground and laid a great foundation for us to build upon! Their dedication and heart for the PWOC ministry has already blessed us in many ways!

What if we just started loving women to Jesus? What if we showed them what it means to have an authentic relationship with someone who will never leave them? All throughout the military there are women who are hungry; for a relationship with Jesus Christ! Oh, they might not understand that Jesus is what they are looking for, but we know that He is the answer to all of life's challenges. In PWOC we see ladies who are doing just that; loving other women to Jesus. They are going back to the basics of worship and Bible study. They are not asking women to get their act together so that they can be a part of fellowship, but are instead welcoming women in just as they are. That, my friends, is the heart of what Jesus did. He loved people enough to accept them as they were and invite them to join Him in His Kingdom! We, as a board want to introduce women to the life-changer, Jesus Christ. We want to help them grow in their relationship with Him. We want to help develop friendships that will point women repeatedly to the Father and His Kingdom. TOGETHER we can encourage, empower, equip, and love on EVERY woman who joins us, if we continue to trust and follow God every step of the way. We want to continue to be a body that works from the head down joining, supporting, growing, building and loving as we do what God has called each of us to do TOGETHER. We want to provide tools, encouragement and training so that lives will be changed for eternity!

We will have a semester of inspiring devotions, a fresh word from the Lord in our Bible studies, and an AMAZING West Region Fall Conference right here in SeaTac, WA! Our prayer for PWOC Ft. Lewis is that we would be just like the "woman at the well" (John 4) and have such profound encounters with JESUS that would change us to the core of our very being. She was a Samaritan woman, minding her business and going to collect water at the well. Little did she know that day would be life altering! She MEETS the MESSIAH!!! He showed her compassion and mercy that no one in her village had. She was so completely moved by him that she couldn't help but RUN to the village and share her TESTIMONY with the people. My favorite part of this is that she left her water jug behind! The very thing that she relied on most didn't matter anymore! The only thing on her mind was to go and tell the towns people what she had heard! May the LORD penetrate your heart so deeply that you throw off whatever is hindering you or whatever circumstance that you are in. We want to encourage you to run to those in your sphere of influence and share your testimony of what the Lord is doing in your life.

Abundant JOY in Jesus! Your 2011-2012 PWOC Board!

Theme Art Explanation

Your Kingdom Come theme art is centered on the Matthew 6:9-13 passage, the model prayer Jesus taught His disciples. The theme design draws from many principles found in this significant scripture.

"Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name." Rays of light, from our Father in heaven, come down from above.

"Your kingdom come. Your will be done, On earth as it is in heaven." The light flows down from heaven above, intersecting with the earth that we inhabit. When our lives and our wills are surrendered to Him, the life we live becomes a beautiful relationship between the King and the one in service to Him. This connection between the light and the earth signifies living life in communion with the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is illustrated by the dove, who is the power of God working in us, aligning the will for our life to that will which is in heaven. The globe represents our calling to take the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth.

"Give us this day our daily bread" is portrayed in the subtle loaf of bread to the left of the rays of light reminding us of that which provides us physical sustenance. Our daily bread also represents a spiritual truth as we daily require communion with the Word of God.

"And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors." The lily in the bottom left represents the forgiveness we receive and give. The white in the lily stands for our purity in Christ. It is accented in red, pointing to the blood of Christ, which makes possible God's beautiful plan of salvation and His gracious means of providing forgiveness for our sins.

"And do not lead us into temptation, But deliver us from the evil one."

For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen." The crown in the stained background, and the keys in the border represent The Kingdom of God and He who holds the keys to the Kingdom.

Ever wish God spoke as clearly as your girlfriends do? Wish you could hear Him that well? Wish talking to Him was fun like that? Between cell phones, kids, and the static of life, a lot of us real girls have gone spiritually deaf. Discover over twenty ways God speaks to us, and learn to dial into the power of divine conversation while laughing out loud with Tune In. (Both books offered together as one study)

Travel to Israel and radically change your understanding of the Scriptures. Wet your feet in the Jordan River and impact the culture with life-giving water. Show your trust in the Lord's provision by offering up first fruits at Jericho. And cleanse the land by confronting evil and using the tools of society to redeem your world for God. The author will show you how God guided His people to a specific place--the Promised Land--to impact the world both in ancient times and today. And what if your relationship isn't as much about you and your spouse as it is about you and God? Everything about your marriage--everything--is filled with prophetic potential, with the capacity for discovering and revealing Christ's character. The respect you accord your partner; the forgiveness you humbly seek and graciously extend; the ecstasy, awe, and sheer fun of lovemaking; the history you and your spouse build with one another--in these and other facets of your marriage, Sacred Marriage uncovers the mystery of God's overarching purpose.
